

Cambridge School Weekly Newsletter

Friday 8th December 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

I am glad to report that the nasty bug going around the school at the end of last week seems to have abated and attendance levels are rising again. Can I urge you to ensure that your child is now properly dressed for the cold winter weather we are experiencing. Looking out my window into the playground, I have been surprised by how many children are not wearing outdoor coats.

Parents' evening was a success last week and I want to thank all of you who took the time to fill in the evaluation form on the night. I am pleased that most of you felt it was a worthwhile and informative experience. I know that the teachers enjoyed having the opportunity to meet you and I can't emphasize enough the importance of positive home/school relationships. If we are united in our determination that your child is happy and productive at school, then we have the best chance of success.

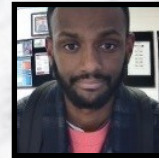

Year 10s have been the stars of the week as they were mature and responsible in the Careers Speed Networking event where blue chip companies such as British Airways and Novotel met students and gave them insights into the world of work and how to present and conduct themselves in interviews. It is a privilege to host such prestigious companies here at Cambridge to enable our students to aim high and dream big!

Yours sincerely,

Alan Campbell,
Head Teacher
