

Cambridge School Weekly Newsletter

Friday 17th November 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

I am writing this week to remind you about the exciting opportunity to become a Parent Governor at Cambridge School. I wrote to you a couple of weeks ago inviting nominations from parents, including self-nominations. I am really pleased that we have received one strong application, but there are currently two vacancies on the governing body and I would like them both filled so parental voice is heard and valued. It gives parents the chance to really understand how the school operates and to be part of the body that holds me to account! My door is always open to you to discuss important matters so if you are interested, please do get in touch. The closing date is Friday 24th November.

All of you have been contacted regarding Parents' Evening on Wednesday 29th November and many of you have made appointments for individual face to face consultations with your child's teacher. Others have chosen Teams meetings to have a virtual meeting online. If you have not managed to make contact with school, please contact us urgently to make an appointment, in person or virtual. Check your emails and answerphone messages for information as we are determined to have 100% participation. Please get involved in your child's education as it makes a huge difference to them and us.

Today is Children in Need Day and I am pleased that the school is fully involved in fundraising for worthwhile, life-changing projects. Thank you to all of you who have donated money to this cause.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Campbell,
Head Teacher
