

Cambridge School Weekly Newsletter

Friday 17th May 2024

Dear Parent/Carer,

I was delighted to attend the West London Inclusive Arts Festival at the Royal Albert Hall this week where Cambridge were represented by a marvellous ensemble of musicians. They performed a forest soundscape which was full of eerie and mysterious atmosphere. The troupe was led by Denis Warren and Cameron Gill so thanks to them for organising, encouraging and inspiring our boys to perform with such confidence and talent in front of a large audience. They performed on both Wednesday and Thursday and on Wednesday Ed Sheeran visited to show his support which was a once in a lifetime moment for our students to meet a real life music legend in the flesh. There was great excitement all round. True to my luck, I missed out by attending on the Thursday!

It has been really encouraging to see so many parents and carers attend our class coffee afternoons. This week we had fantastic turn outs for both Einstein and Obama classes. The students have loved having their parents and carers visit and see them in action in their class environments and they have been proud to show off their work. Staff and students have been working hard to get parents and carers into school and it has been wonderful to receive positive feedback. I know many of you were anxious and uncertain about sending your child to Cambridge as it was an unknown entity for reasons of distance and location, but events like these help to reassure you and break down any barriers between home and school. We are proud of the work that we do here and want to share it with the widest possible audience.

Have a fantastic weekend!

Yours sincerely,
Alan Campbell,
Head Teacher
